ALBANY

·New ·York

The year of 1955 marks not only the termination of the high school days of the Class of 1955, but also brings to completion the nine years' term of Reverend Brother B. Thomas, F.S.C., as director of Christian Brothers Academy.

May we, in dedicating this yearbook to you, assure you that all of us are aware of your achievements in the development and beautification of the buildings and grounds of our school.

But much more do we value and treasure the remembrance of your deep interest in our personal welfare, your unfailing kindness and courtesy, and your splendid example of devotion to the highest ideals of good citizenship and right conduct.

Affectionately DEDICATED to

REVEREND BROTHER THOMAS, F. S. C.

ALBANY

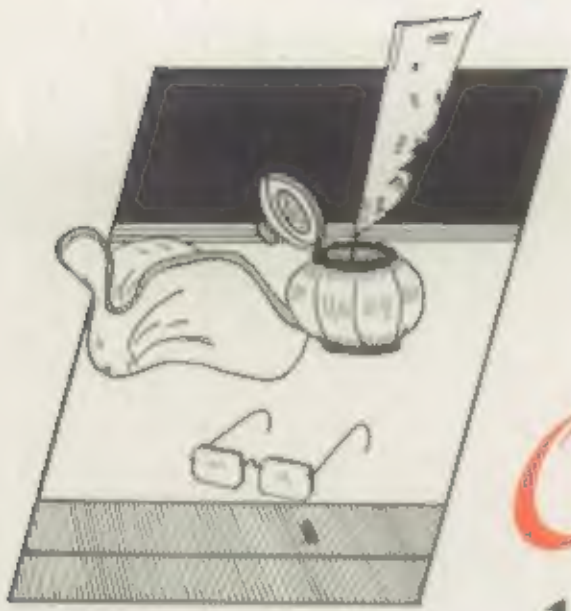
"Cradle of the Union"

What figure typifies more strongly the Dutch Era of Albany's history than the strong-willed Pieter Stuyvesant. On April 1, 1682 he first set his silver-laced wooden leg ashore at Fort Orange, and proceeded to battle the patroons for a tract of land, bordering on the Hudson, and extending sixteen miles inland. It was this tract of land, wrested from the gentry —the Van Rensselaers and the Van Schlectenhorsts—that became the municipality of Albany.

The title—Albany, Cradle of the Union —is no empty claim or idle boast. The historic meetings that took place here in the summer of 1754 were presided over by a very great American, Benjamin Franklin. It was he who formulated and championed the resolution that "a Union of the colonies is at present absolutely necessary for their security and defense." What closer ties with the realities of history can we Albanians look for than the fact that in a building on Hudson and Broadway, the "Plan of Union" was first expounded.

One name stands highest in Albany's Revolutionary history—that of Major General Philip Schuyler, who commanded the American Army of the North, and who skillfully routed the western wing of the British Campaign against New York. A fearless, daring patriot, he richly deserved the tribute paid him by Daniel Webster: "General Schuyler ranked next to Washington in his service to his country."

The Seniors of 1955 are happy, through the pages of this, their Yearbook, to pay tribute to Albany aud the famous men who shared in its history.



On the opposite page, we introduce to you a little character, named Beetle Van Schlectenhorst – so 'tis said. He's not a gremlin; he's not a gnome. He's just a chap left over from colonial days who likes it so well around CBA that he won't leave. Beetle is just one of the boys.

Beetle says that school is just the same as in colonial days. Only the buildings have changed. And some of the subjects are tougher to crack. Beetle thinks some of the faculty might even be the same, but he won't swear to that. With this in mind, we now present this year's school and faculty. - - - - - - - - - -

Alas, poor Beetle, we knew him well. But once again a Senior Class leaves him behind. For many years Beetle has followed the classes through our great halls. Yet he has never quite reached the day of graduation. Perhaps he doesn't want to leave. Perhaps he can't get out.

In any case, we now present to you the Class of '55, and we ask Beetle Van Schleetenhorst to remember us fondly, and to wish us well as we take our places in the ranks of the distinguished Alumni of Christian Brothers Academy. - - -

THE SENIOR POLL

Everybody loves a parade, but Beetle loves them more than anybody. Nobody can miss Beetle in a parade; he's always there at the end of the company. His rifle may be out of line; he's in step only with himself; he may be blowing the wrong note on his fife. Let's face it, Beetle is the one who is looking at the people along the street.

But he comes through with flying colors, and so does the regiment. He says it's the esprit de corps, and that we get that from Brother Boniface, Captain Joyce, and the Cadet Officers. We are all proud of Our Military. - - - - - - - - - - -

To be or not to be, and Beetle isn't! Beetle isn't a singer; Beetle isn't a Thespian; in fact, Beetle isn't much of anything. He's just always there. In anything and everything that is a CBA activity, Beetle is present, and is a source of joy to all the participants in extra-curricular functions of the school.

Beetle is not only happy when with the Cadets; he also finds delight in watching the parents' organizations of CBA, and expresses the thanks of the Regiment for the many improvements that these societies have brought about. - - - - - -

There's No Business Like Show Business! Our Glee Club, numbering 65, in full force, gets a taste of teen Television, "Ultra High Frequency," to less. In spite of unlimited appearances Television, Radio, Assemblies, Spring Concert and a number of other programs they still find time to practice. Here they put on a program for Donna Weiss's afternoon show. The Pennsylvanians have nothing on us.

"So Dear To My Heart" Here you can see our Glee Club as they looked at a post season demonstration. The event was the commemoration for the Albany Plan of Union put on by the New York State Board of Regents, June 25, 1954. We performed before many distinguished guests including Congressman Leo O'Brien, Governor Thomas E. Dewey and Governors of neighboring states as well as members of our State Legislature. No wonder it is dear to our hearts.

"A Tribute to a Great Director—Mr. Hanlon"

The Senior Class presented "The Milky Way," a hilarious comedy in three acts, on the nights of February 9 and 10 in the school gymnasium.

Just as a Broadway production is taken on the road, the school play was given a few out of town presentations. The first stop was St. Anne's Home, then St. Peter's Hospital, and finally the troupe took to the hills of Mt. McGregor to present their play at the Veteran's Hospital.

The 1000 spectators who saw the play at CBA were highly pleased with the performances. "The Milky Way" will long be remembered as one of the best in the school's history.

Mr. Hanlon explains to Edward Smith and Charles Morrel the intricacies of playing their parts and also how to become hot sports reporters.

"Well, it was sort of a plop," explained Ed "Kicker" Kane, to Catherine Early and Tom Bailey in the scene before his first pre-arranged (fixed) professional fight.

ORATORY CONTESTS AND DEBATE TOURNAMENTS

FAMILY NIGHT AT CBA

This year saw a great increase in the number of dances at CBA. In addition to the Hallowe'en and the Block "B" dances, sponsored by the Dance Committee and moderated by Brother James, there were several "Family Night Dances" after the basketball games. These dances were originated and promoted by Brother Arator, and met with enthusiastic support from the student body.

Many parents stayed after the games to watch the dancing and listen to the music. At the upper right are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Connelly and Professor and Mrs. Donald McCarthy.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE

THE LADIES AUXILIARY OF C B A

The Ladies Auxiliary of Christian Brothers Academy opened its year of activities under its new President, Mrs. Donald McCarthy. The various functions scheduled for the year will follow the general pattern of events of previous years, so successfully directed by previous past Presidents and officers.

The first event of the calendar was the September Silver Tea, a "get-acquainted get-together." The chairmen for this fine affair were Mrs. Richard Calentone and Mrs. Richard McCarroll, shown at the right with the President welcoming one of the Freshman mothers.

The Annual Communion Breakfast of the Ladies Auxiliary, a regular autumnal event, was held on Nov. 11, 1964. The main speaker this year was the Reverend Thomas H. Kiely, pastor of St. John's Church, pictured at the left. Next to him is Mrs. Frank Quackenbush, who served as co-chairman with Mrs. Richard P. Creegan. At the right are Mrs. Daniel McCarthy, President of the Ladies Auxiliary, and Brother Thomas, Director.

The traditional Harvest Shower of the Ladies Auxiliary was again directed by Mrs. Eugene Lebon and Mrs. Grace Mock, shown at the right with Mrs. McCarthy and Brother Thomas.

Presiding at one of the several teas at the Silver Tea are Mrs. John Vroman and Mrs. Howard D. Schafer.

From out the stands comes the CBA war-cry. Yes, it's Beetle again, cheering his heart out till the last second of play. He's the first to get into the stands, and the last one to leave, and whatever the score is, he'll tell you that CBA can't lose. In short, Beetle is the spirit behind the spirit behind the teams of the "Brothers."

This do-or-die spirit prevails on all our teams, and has given CBA good reason to boast of its athletic record. With a vote of thanks to our great coaches, Mr. Falivene and Mr. O'Haire, we present the Athletes of our school.

Athletics

John Romano and Ray Donnelly were the co-captains of CPA's [illegible] football team. Both were on the starting team for three years. Ray was named by the Knickerbocker News to the All-Albany first team and to the second team by the Times Union. John received honorable mention in the Knickerbocker and second team by the Times Union.

Tom Bailey, the Brothers' top back, was named first team All Albany by both the Knickerbocker News and the Times-Union. He was also awarded the Thom McAn trophy for brilliance as a CBA back for three years. He will be long remembered by Albany fans for his four touchdown effort in the Catholic High game of 19[illegible].

TOM BAILEY

CBA coach, Carl Palvene, discusses strategy over the phone with backfield coach "Ike" Whalen. Ike, will the screen pass go?

No football team would be complete without a small do or die player. CBA's Gene Kelsey filled such a role for three years. Although he was a reserve he gave everything in all the games he played.

John DiGiulio displays his block-busting form that weakened many a line for two years. Will long be remembered for his outstanding defensive play and strong desire to win.

Ray Casey in his first year of Varsity ball proved valuable to the single wing style of attack. His speed and agility helped CBA out of many tight spots this year.

SENIOR GRIDDERS

Tom Burke was a varsity reserve for two years and showed to advantage in the Cathedral Central and Albany High games.

Ray Audi, who was responsible for the tie with Kingston with an unerring PAT, was a varsity starter for three years.

Ken Robinson hurdles a Vincentian man in form that befuddled many opposing defenders.

Bill Kissane was an outstanding center for two years. His very aggressive style of play helped the Crusaders to many touchdowns.

Jack Horan saw plenty of action for the Brothers in his three years on the varsity and is considered a top college prospect.

" - AND THEN THE WHISTLE "

John Romano and Ray Donnelly shake hands with Mickey Corcoran as Tony Mahoney, Vincentian captains, discuss pre game instructions.

Ray Auch shows how it's done as he adds CBA's seventh point to the scoreboard during the first quarter against Gloversville. Tom Barley is holding the ball

Jack Pallone was CBA's strong tow tackle this year. One of the best tackles in the city, he will long be remembered for his determination and spirit during many games.

Jerry Purcell was the surprise of the season. A boy who never played football before last year, Jerry was outstanding in every game he played

Harry Ford gave everything he had every minute this season. His defensive play was stellar throughout the season, especially in the LaSalle game.

Bob Voth, Bing Kassane, and Tom Bailey stagger in from practice followed by Paul Leafer, Ray Donnelly, Tom Burke, and John Romano

Garth MacFarland, CBA end, was rated the best pass catching end in the city this year. In the Kingston game he run wild scoring once and setting up another touchdown.

"Leggo my head", hollers Jack Riley, junior end, as he is mauled by two Vincentian defenders after catching a Bailey aerial

Don Crotty, junior sensation, was named All Albany for the second straight year by the Times-Union. His all around play and drive has earned him a reputation as being one of the finest players ever to don the Purple and Gold.

THE SEASON'S RECORD

During October the Cross-Country team participated in one dual meet, defeating New Lebanon, 15-40, for a perfect score. The CBA harriers took the first seven places with Captain John Keegan taking individual honors.

This meet served as a warm-up for the open meets in which the team made a good showing. In the Proctor Meet the team finished eighth, and in the Grout Meet the Brothers finished 6th. Ed Roche was the individual winner in the Class Division of the Cobleskill Meet, with the team taking second place honors. At Gloversville the CBA harriers placed third.

Brother Denis, Coach of the team, brought the team along very nicely this year, and next year's prospects are bright, although the team will miss Sal Rinella, Chuck Sano and John Keegan.

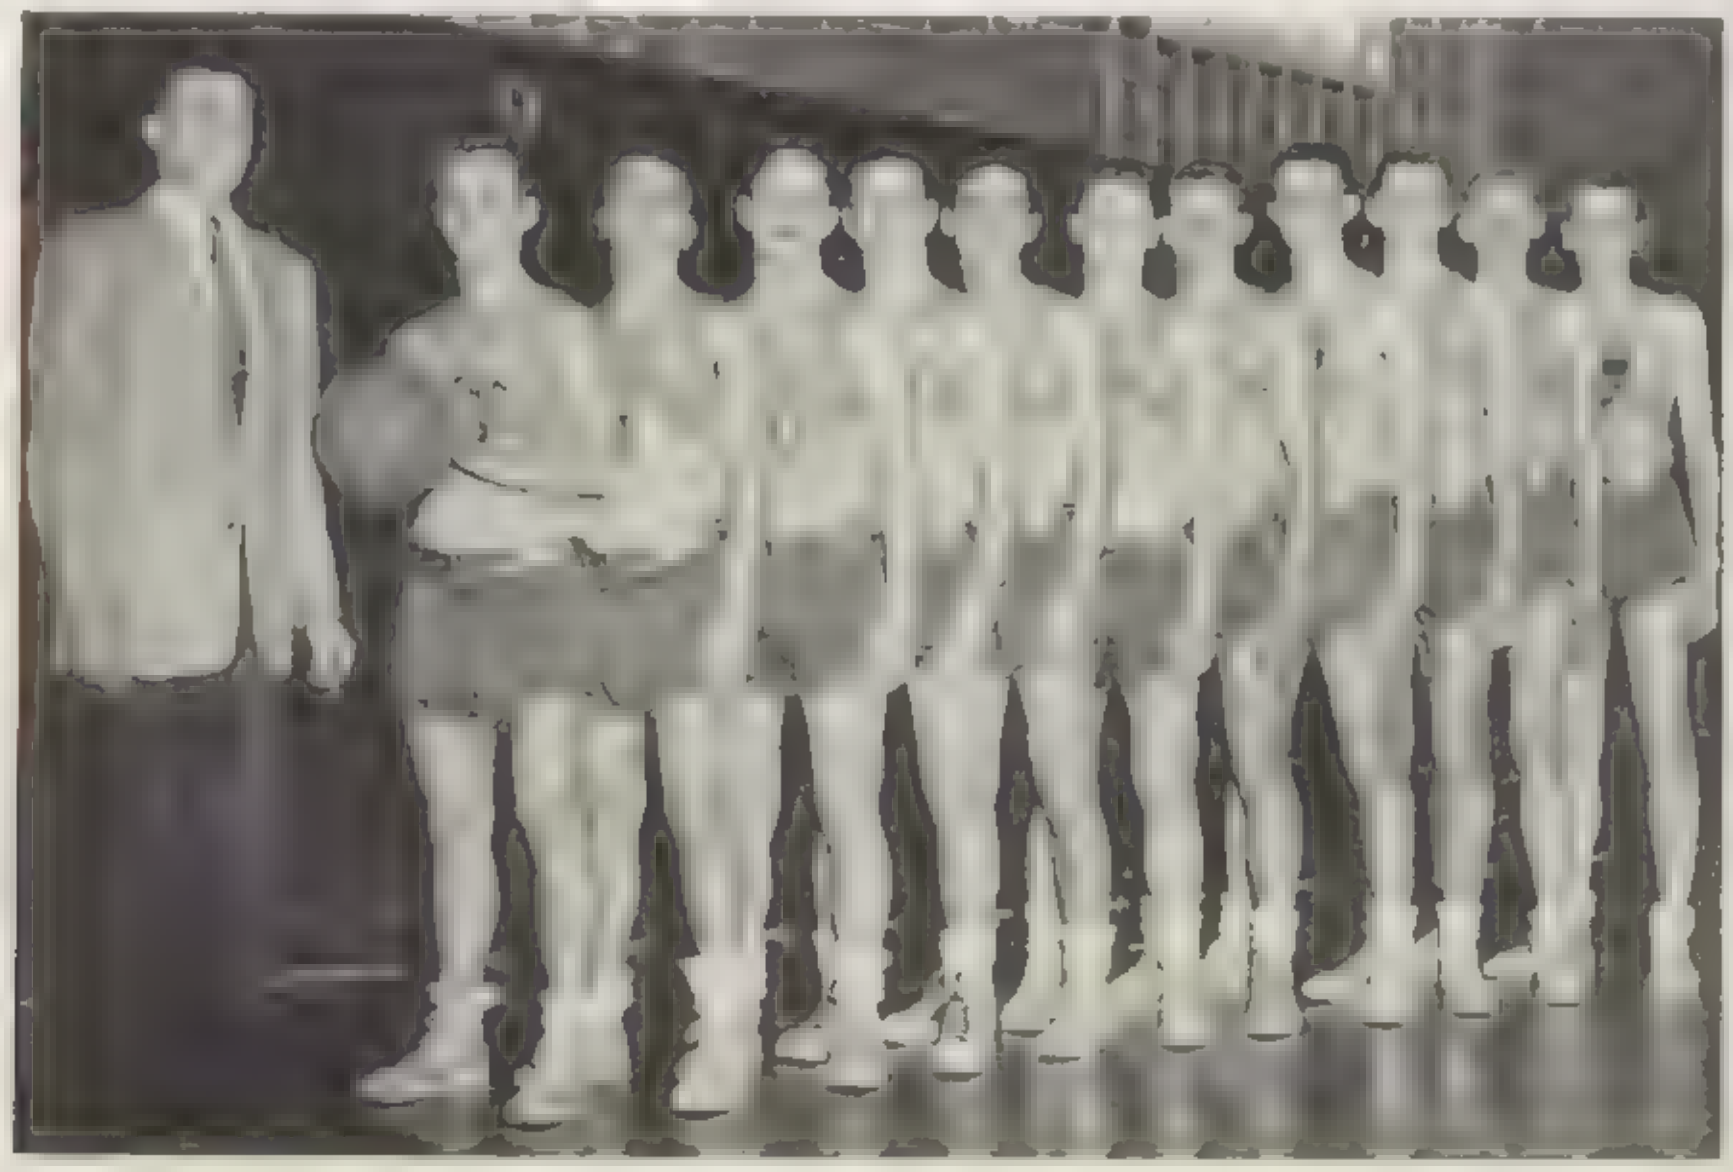
JUNIOR VARSITY TEAM - 1955



John Fohlet

A Sophomore [illegible] will be a starter next year [illegible] great ball handler . . . strong, and able to move with the fastest

Brian McNulty

A defensive specialist [illegible] has one more year of Varsity play [illegible] best with a driving layup shot

Darrell Burns

"Isl," was the Junior starter on this year's team [illegible] plenty of drive and spirit [illegible] next year's captain

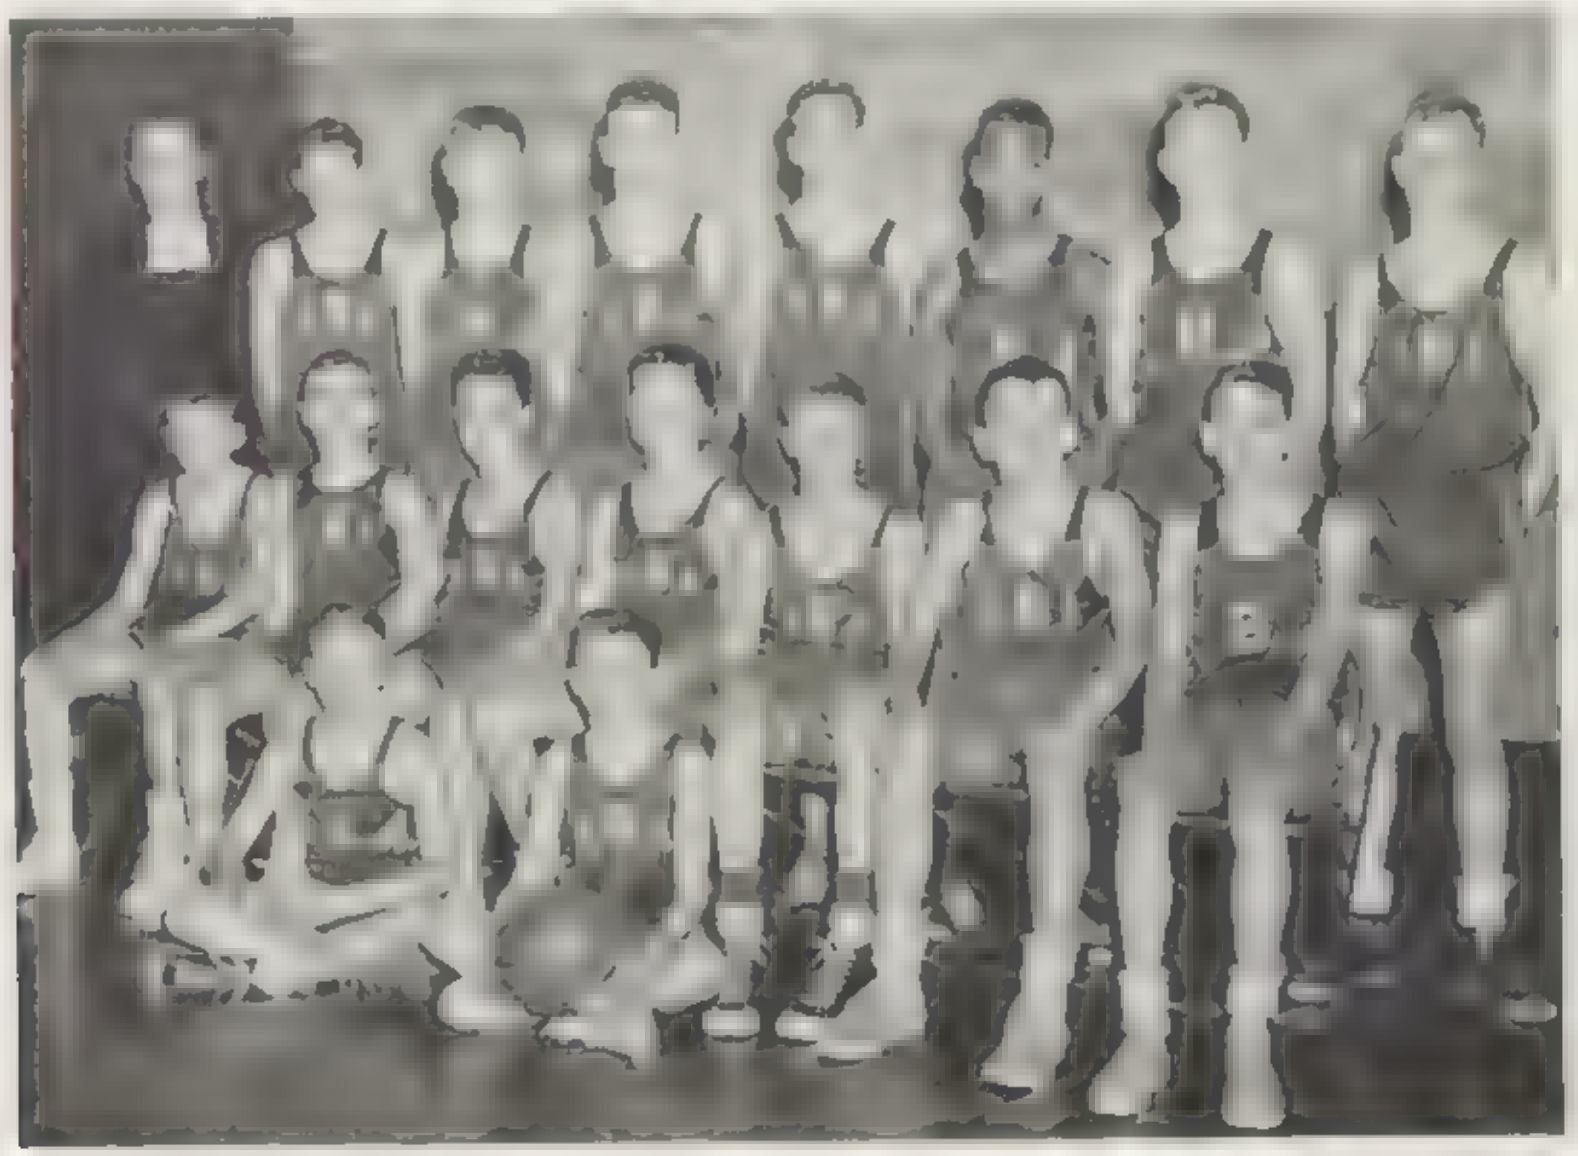
Seated Kevin Kinslow, Philip McCann, Antonio Cardona, Gary DeSormeau, Barry Plunk
Standing Brantley Williams, Coach, John McMahon, Joseph Early, John O'Connor, Rogers Riley, Robert Henderson, Gaynell Wheeler, James Moore

FRESHMAN TEAM OF 1955



CHA RIFLE TEAMS

VARSITY 1955

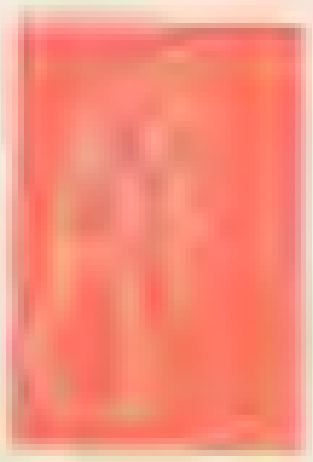
Second Row Hank McFerran, Karl Dell, Joseph Farrar, Emery Thibodeau
Third Row Neal Walsh, Manager, Alfred Turner, John Clancy, Meredon Kelsey, Capt., Charles Mead



At the beginning of the year we were honored to have Reverend Brother E. Victor, Assistant Superior General of the Christian Brothers, to award the medals for the National Military Schools Championship. Shown at left is Brother Victor shaking hands with Cadet Sergeant Hank McFerran after conferring the medals on him and Cadet Sergeant Fred Hoey. In the background watching the presentation of awards is Cadet Sergeant Major Donald Graham

Pictured at the right is Henry J. McFerran, the anchor man on this year's Rifle Team. Hank, as he is called by his many friends on the team, is the most improved shooter of the year. Consistently hitting over 190 in top Hearst Individual scoring, he shot 192 to take 1st place in the 1st Army Area. Hank also has the rating of Distinguished Rifleman.

1st HEARST TEAM

Rev. Brother Paul Moderator; Capt. Raymond Joyce, Coach; Joseph Farrar, Emery Thibodeau, Karl Doll, Hank McFerran, Charles Mead

This team won top honors in the 1st Army Area, and Third Place (out of 1600 schools) in the entire country

[illegible] TEAM

Standing: Brother A. Paul, Moderator; Joseph Crescenzi, James Fraley, Raymond Joyce, Coach.

Karl Dolt, an "Expert," shows his style in the "Setting" position. Karl always has a 50 on this spot.

[illegible] TEAM

Second Row: Tony Corda, Robert Erschel, Emery Thibodeau, John Lewis, Leonard Schleicher, John Casserly, Joseph Meany.

Joseph Lurar, who is always in the "Top Five", demonstrates his outstanding "Kneeling" position. Joe is another CBA Rifleman who has earned the coveted title of "Expert"

"But I'm not the manager, honest!" says Capt. Meldon Kelsey to Joseph Wernschen, as the Junior High boy examines his well tagged shooting jacket

The Grammar School Varsity played a full schedule of games through the winter basketball season, and posted a good record of 9 wins and 7 losses. The members of this team were: Kneeling, l. to r.: J. Vroman, R. Walton, R. Lavigne, T. Schaller. Standing: W. Murphy, D. Oberting, J. Cruscen, F. North, J. Valente, J. Fedlow, H. Yezzi, W. Adams.

GRADE SCHOOL ATHLETICS

They start young at CBA—that's the reason that our Varsity is tops on the Rifle Range. Representing the Grammar School was the Rifle Team composed of William Kelleher, Kenneth Gwiazdowski, John Tickell, Richard Nash, Richard Cutaiano and Walter Zorn.

LEAGUE CHAMPS

DAVIS CUPPERS

DYNAMOS

The Cadet Regiment gave a great account of itself in the yell department during the basketball season of 1950. The Seven Dynamos coached and energized by Brother Arator did a wonderful job leading the cheers. At the right, Kevin Reilly, Tom Raymond, Mike Mulderry, Orry Barr, Jack Cummings, Jay Dunigan and Bob Mahoney.

LOW THE FIVE!

The team got fine support, both at home games and on the road. "Low the Five" was the watchword of the season. Leading the enthusiasts were the officers of the Five Club: Andy Matthews, Mike Colins, Ray Donnelly and Dan Motta.

Is this a cheer or did somebody say "Free Cokes?" The Dynamos take a breather, while the stands let go.

AS THE YEAR GOT UNDER WAY

A familiar sight before regular school begins. Paul Smith looks a little startled at John Casserly's first efforts to do an about face

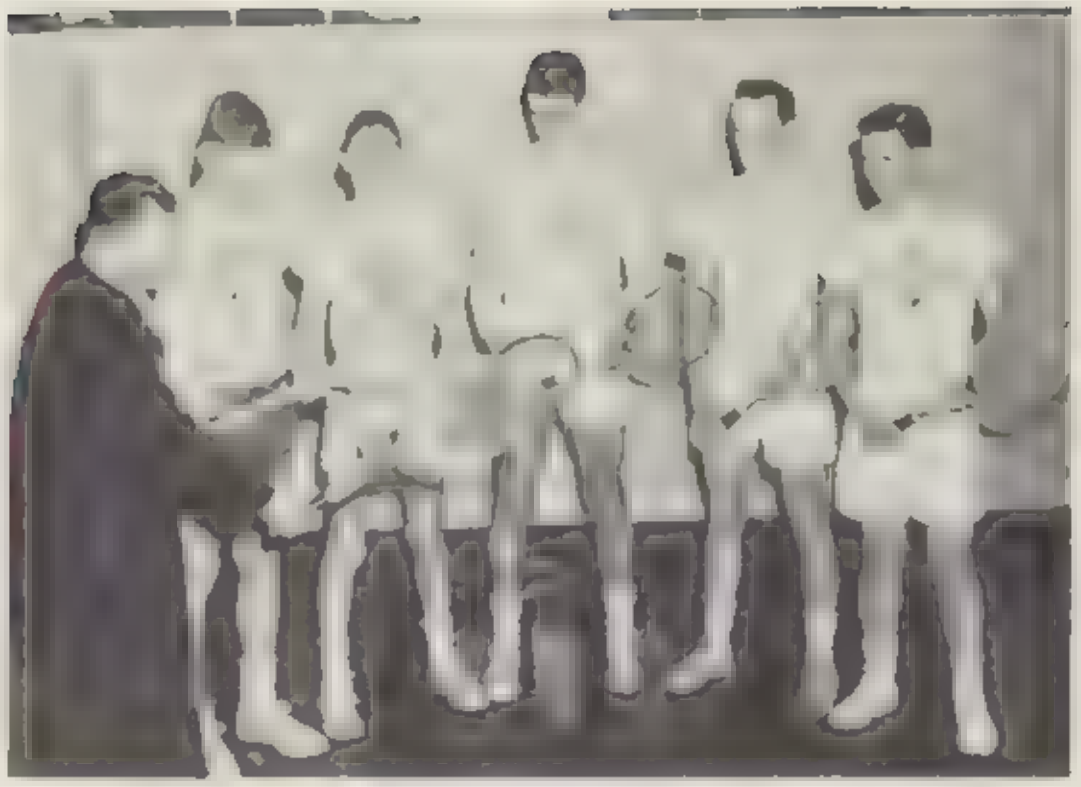
SILVER JUBILEE OF BROTHER PAUL

The cadets of C.B.A. were privileged early in October, to assist at the Silver Jubilee Mass of Reverend Brother Paul, F.S.C. The occasion was an inspiration to all, especially when we learned that Brother Paul was a resident of our own Capitol area, and a graduate of LaSalle Institute, Troy. The Mass was celebrated by Reverend Father Basil Corbett, O.M.Cap., who also extended the best wishes of students and faculty to the Jubilarian.

FASHION SHOW

A sure sign of autumn is the Ladies Auxiliary Fall Card Party. This year a Fashion Show was presented on the same evening. Among the "C.B.A. models" were the mothers of two of our students, Mrs. James McBrome and Mrs. James Collins, shown at the left with young Kevin McCarthy and Brendan Bury.

THOSE AN ACTIVITY [illegible]



CBA COURTMEN

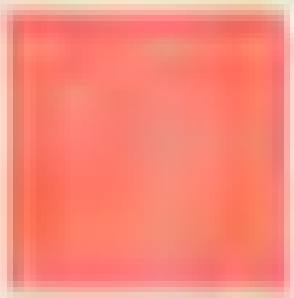
BAND LEADERS

An all-year job is shared by Professor James Leyden and Brother B. Anthony Bond, Instructor and Moderator respectively. Their first plans have to do with getting the Band ready for football game appearances.



GRID CHOIR

Football practice can be very tiring, but just mention a song, and the Glee Club Footballers sound a merry note.

Standing (and parallel to the bottom row): John DiGiulio, John Horan and Harry Ford.

SCHOOL IS THE FUN-DAY WHEN JUNIOR ARE MADE

CRAFTSMEN

Fascinating to do, and fascinating to just watch. David Delehanty is absorbed in Richard Armory's painting job while William Heim peeks in the door. The Arts and Crafts Class, under Brother Aloysius' direction, has made a real hit with the Junior High boys

GOAT GETTER

That little feller, Billy the XIIth, always seems to make a big hit with the crowd, but somehow he just doesn't seem to help the team too much. Is he a goat? Holding the monster are [illegible] Ed Vrdmosky, Robert O'Sullivan, Frances DeFrancesco, and James Williams.

BREEZY CHATTER

CHRISTMAS IS THE TIME FOR GIVING

THANKS, ISH!

Christmas bells ring out once more as our school Santa (Donnell Burns) presents Col. Dan Muth with a trumpet to replace his whistle. Lt. Col. Dennis Corbett, the M. C., finds it quite funny

AWARDS DAY

It took a lot of hard work and patient practice to win the school letter. Looking with pride at their achievements are Dave Foster and Jim Williams. The fellow in the background is the New Look.

GRACIOUS GIVER

Through the gifts of the Ladies Auxiliary members, C. B. A. was able to send Christmas packages to the tots at St. Vincent's Home, and we were honored to have His Excellency, Bishop William A. Scully preside at the distribution. The children didn't seem at all concerned that Santa is wearing black instead of red. The Bishop's helpers are Cadets Anthony Cordi, and James McNutt.

RAW RECRUITS

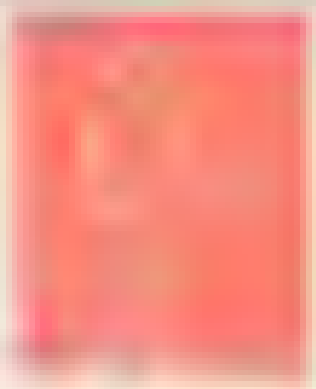
OVERSTUFFED LOCKER

This is what is done to Bill Straney after he's read one of his epic poems or when he's trying to prove that he really did lose 20 pounds, but there you are and there we are. The strong finger boys on top are Charles Sano and Tom Bailey and the rest of the pile standing are L to r: John O'Connor, Jim Canfield, Jerry Di Carlo, Bill Straney, Frank Wallingford, Ed Kore, Ray Donnelly, John Romano. Kneeling are Don Muth and Mike Riley.



TV SNACK

A PLEDGE

For over half a century men with talents, men with ideas and men with vision, painstakingly selected for special aptitude, have worked together in a community of craftsmen

These Josten craftsmen, inspired with the belief that precious metal should be increasingly endowed with symbolism and artistry, have pledged traditional honest craftsmanship and unfailing devotion to high standards in the creation and fashioning of fine jewelry for the Christian Brothers Academy Cadet Corps.

AUXILIARY DRIVE

How many quotas did you say it was? Those fellows have that look in their eyes and they're out to make the St. Lasalle Auxiliary Drive a big success. According to the final statistics the school's total was close to 200 % to 1. Bruce Morgan, Dan Marth, Ed Garzone, Mike Gaudis, and Ed Kane.

Sons of C.B.A.,

We Salute You!

Hats off to you, men of Christian Brothers Academy!

We are proud to congratulate you on the fine achievements of your school and the part each of you has played in making such progress possible.

You are indeed fortunate to be under the tutelage of the Christian Brothers, whose outstanding work in the fields of education and religious training is well known throughout the world. We know, too, that you appreciate the value of the military knowledge and training you have received, which will be of much benefit to you in the future.

We at Savard and Colburn are also proud and appreciative of the small part we have been fortunate in playing in this fine picture of progress and accomplishment, through the furnishing of C.B.A. blue dress uniforms during the past several years. It has been a pleasure to have you as our friends and as we look to the future we assure you that we will ever be constant to our motto: Quality, Service and Satisfaction.
